

HOUSEHOLDING AND URBAN FARMING CONTESTS

It wouldn't be a fair without competitions and ribbons! Put your baking, preserving and growing skills to the test. We'll be judging entries in three categories – Baking, Preserving & Best of the Backyard. How do you measure up against the competition?

Only one entry per category. Bring your registration form and product to the warehouse door at our 714 N Fremont location on Friday, September 17th between 2 pm and 6 pm. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded the following day at the Fair. Please fill out a form for each entry.

.....
Name

.....
Address

.....
Phone

.....
E-mail address

Please check the box for your entry. Only one per category!

BAKING

- Fruit Pie - Bake us your tastiest fresh fruit pie. No restrictions on crust, but in our book butter is always better!
- Decorated Cake - Show off your artistic skills in this style-meets-taste competition.
- Pan Bread - Bring us your fresh-from-the-oven traditional loaf-style bread.
- Rustic Bread - Baked free-form on a stone, bring us your best hearth loaf.

PRESERVING please bring 2 jars of your competition item. One for tasting and one for display!

- Pickles - Sweet, sour, garlicky or spicy...we want it all!
- Jam - Mashed, pureed, sliced or small whole fruit – bring us your best jam from local ingredients.
- Jelly - For those who prefer just juice, bring us your best jelly from local fruit.
- Canned Stone Fruit - Plum, cherry, peach and apricot! Show us how you preserve your summer!

BEST OF THE BACKYARD

- Tastiest Tomato - Bring us 3 of your ripest, juiciest tomatoes from the backyard.
- Cornucopia - Bring us 6 - 8 homegrown veggies of different varieties. All veggies are welcome.
- Eggs - Bring us one dozen of your backyard eggs. No need to bring the hen.

.....
For Baking and Preserving Categories, please list your ingredients and their provenance:

.....
Give us three sentences about why your entry should win!

HOUSEHOLDING AND URBAN FARMING CONTESTS

It wouldn't be a fair without competitions and ribbons! Put your baking, preserving and growing skills to the test. We'll be judging entries in three categories – Baking, Preserving & Best of the Backyard. How do you measure up against the competition?

Only one entry per category. Bring your registration form and product to the warehouse door at our 714 N Fremont location on Friday, September 17th between 2 pm and 6 pm. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded the following day at the Fair. Please fill out a form for each entry.

.....
Name

.....
Address

.....
Phone

.....
E-mail address

Please check the box for your entry. Only one per category!

BAKING

- Fruit Pie - Bake us your tastiest fresh fruit pie. No restrictions on crust, but in our book butter is always better!
- Decorated Cake - Show off your artistic skills in this style-meets-taste competition.
- Pan Bread - Bring us your fresh-from-the-oven traditional loaf-style bread.
- Rustic Bread - Baked free-form on a stone, bring us your best hearth loaf.

PRESERVING please bring 2 jars of your competition item. One for tasting and one for display!

- Pickles - Sweet, sour, garlicky or spicy...we want it all!
- Jam - Mashed, pureed, sliced or small whole fruit – bring us your best jam from local ingredients.
- Jelly - For those who prefer just juice, bring us your best jelly from local fruit.
- Canned Stone Fruit - Plum, cherry, peach and apricot! Show us how you preserve your summer!

BEST OF THE BACKYARD

- Tastiest Tomato - Bring us 3 of your ripest, juiciest tomatoes from the backyard.
- Cornucopia - Bring us 6 - 8 homegrown veggies of different varieties. All veggies are welcome.
- Eggs - Bring us one dozen of your backyard eggs. No need to bring the hen.

.....
For Baking and Preserving Categories, please list your ingredients and their provenance:

.....
Give us three sentences about why your entry should win!